Buck Yeager Band to headline 2018 Earth Day GreenUp

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (March 7, 2018) – The Buck Yeager Band will be the headliner at the Earth Day GreenUp on Saturday, March 24, 2018. Volunteers and attendees of the 2018 Earth Day GreenUp will enjoy the classic country sounds as part of the post cleanup celebration.

Recently honored with the 2018 Best New Song from The Country Music Association of Texas, the band will take the stage from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. during the GreenUp celebration following the eighth annual community-wide stewardship project for The Woodlands Township. It will be held at Northshore Park, 2505 Lake Woodlands Dr., The Woodlands, TX 77380. The party will feature eco booths, kids' activities, free face painting and refreshments.

Based out of Houston, Texas, the Buck Yeager Band is on the path to emerge as one of Houston's best upcoming country acts. The Buck Yeager Band has thrilled audiences across Texas with their tremendous energy and their proven ability to entertain audiences of all ages.

Connect with neighbors and the outdoors by joining or leading a cleanup crew bagging trash from the streets, pathways and streams during the GreenUp. Annually, volunteers remove the equivalent of 4,500 pounds or 76 96-gallon trash carts.

Earth Day GreenUp is presented by The Woodlands Township Environmental Services Department. For more information, please visit us online at www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/Environment or call 281-210-3800.
